ZK-GBF hangered at Drury is a self-launch Arcus M, 2 seater glider which allows you the opportunity for seven day week soaring. No rigging. No tow plane. No Paddock landings. LX Nav instruments front and rear.

Easy to fly, comfortable, handy and agile - with outstanding performance and syndicate partners:

Performance benchmarks in the Two-Seater Class have been re-defined by the Arcus. Whether you are aiming to achieve OLC top positions or record flights, take your friends soaring, competition results, or interesting safari flights - the Arcus self-launching sailplane provides the ideal means to put these ideas into practice.
