OLC is closing -

The Online Competition OLC will be closed down from the 22 of September, this month.

You can read the full article on OLC at https://www.onlinecontest.org/olc-

3.0/segelflugszene/singlenews.html?news=3789

Those who have used OLC to keep a log of all flights can transfer all your OLC flights to Weglide using this website. <https://olc2weglide.nl/>

You will need your OLC ID which is at the top of the settings page once you are logged in.

You will also need your Weglide ID which is at the bottom of the settings page in Weglide.

Once you have been able to download a season of flights you will be asked for your Weglide ID, your Date of birth, your OLC USER name (Not the ID number) and your OLC Password.

Check the top check box on the list to select all, then uncheck and select the files that didn't transfer correctly.

I've successfully done this for all my flights, it took a while, with several attempts, don't try and do more than one season at a time otherwise it times out. So do 2023, 2024 type of thing.

There will no doubt be lots of error messages that won't make much sense, but you should refresh the Weglide page to check what has actually been transferred.

Thanks to Anton CFI from the Auckland Club for highlighting and how to guide.

And of course, if you missed it here is GNZ Monthly round Up

Weekend Reports

Saturday – No Flying

Sunday – No Flying – really Windy and stormy

Meanwhile if you cannot go soaring, you can go Skiing and bump into your gliding buddies in Wanaka. Which is what Izzy did and caught up with Ben G who is working down at the ski field at Cardrona.
